

Introduction to Metals Week 16

DAILY AGENDA

Teacher(s): Surber	Date: 11-28 to 12-12 2022 Metal Composition
Standards:	AC-M01-1 Demonstrate employability skills required by business &amp; industry. ACCT-ITM-4. Students will demonstrate the ability to use measuring instruments specific to the metals trade. a. Demonstrate proficiency measuring work pieces with a standard steel rule to the nearest 1/64". b. Demonstrate proficiency in the proper care, cleaning, and storage of measuring instruments. ACCT-ITM-3. Students will demonstrate proficiency in the use of hand tools and power tools specific to the trade. a. Demonstrate proficiency using tools related to the metals trade in a safe and appropriate manner. b. Demonstrate proficiency in proper maintenance and care of tools in the metals trade. SPS4. Students will investigate the arrangement of the Periodic Table.
Learning Target:	Students will become familiar with the symbols and reading of drawings.
Success Criteria:	Students will score a 70% or higher on the Section 2 Unit 6 Worksheet as well as the related test at the end of the week.
Activity(ies)/Assignment with Text and/or Links:	Class textbook Section 2 Unit 6 with related PowerPoints and videos, class discussion, in-class worksheet, and related unit test. Complete projects